By engaging with ESSU, attending our events, using our services or visiting our website, you acknowledge that your personal information may be processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Who We Are

ESSU is the organisation responsible for determining the purposes and means of processing personal information collected through its activities, events, programmes and services.

For the purposes of data protection legislation, ESSU acts as the Data Controller.

ESSU is committed to handling all personal information fairly, lawfully, transparently and securely.

Our Privacy Principles

ESSU follows the principles established by UK GDPR.

Personal data will be:

- ☒ Processed lawfully, fairly and transparently.
 - ☒ Collected for specified and legitimate purposes.
 - ☒ Limited to what is necessary.
 - ☒ Accurate and kept up to date.
 - ☒ Retained only for as long as necessary.
 - ☒ Stored securely.
 - ☒ Processed with appropriate accountability and governance measures.

With Your Consent

Where you have explicitly authorised ESSU to do so.

ESSU does not sell personal information to third parties.

International Data Transfers

ESSU will primarily store and process personal information within the United Kingdom.

Where information is transferred outside the UK, ESSU will ensure appropriate safeguards are in place, including:

- Adequacy regulations;
 - International Data Transfer Agreements (IDTAs);
 - Standard Contractual Clauses; or
 - Other legally approved protection mechanisms.

Data Security

ESSU is committed to protecting personal information.

Security measures may include:

- Secure servers

- Encryption
- Access controls
- Password protection
- Staff training
- Data access restrictions
- Secure disposal procedures

While no system can be guaranteed as completely secure, ESSU takes reasonable and proportionate steps to protect personal information from unauthorised access, loss, misuse or disclosure.

How Long We Keep Information

ESSU retains personal information only for as long as necessary.

In general:

- Membership records may be retained for up to 6 years after the end of your relationship with ESSU.
- Financial records are retained in accordance with legal and accounting requirements.
- Safeguarding records may be retained for significantly longer periods where legally required.
- Incident, complaint and disciplinary records may be retained in accordance with legal limitation periods and safeguarding guidance.

When information is no longer required, it will be securely deleted or anonymised.

Your Data Protection Rights

You have the right to:

Access

Request a copy of the personal information ESSU holds about you.

Rectification

Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete information.

Erasure

Request deletion of personal information where applicable.

Restriction

Request limitation of processing in certain circumstances.

Portability

Request transfer of certain data to another organisation.

Objection

Object to processing based on legitimate interests.

Withdraw Consent

Withdraw consent at any time where processing relies upon consent.

Complain

Raise concerns regarding the handling of your information.

These rights are subject to certain legal exemptions and limitations.

Making a Data Subject Request

Requests relating to personal information should be submitted to ESSU in writing.

Email: privacy@englandshooting.org.uk

ESSU will respond within the timescales required under applicable data protection legislation.

Proof of identity may be requested before personal information is released.

Children's Information

ESSU takes the privacy of children and young people seriously.

Where information relates to individuals under 18 years of age:

- Additional safeguards may apply.
- Parental or guardian consent may be required.
- Data will be processed in accordance with safeguarding legislation and best practice.

ESSU will always seek to balance participation opportunities with appropriate privacy protection.

Cookies and Website Technologies

ESSU websites may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- Improve functionality
- Monitor website performance
- Understand visitor behaviour
- Enhance user experience

Where required by law, consent will be obtained before non-essential cookies are used.

Artificial Intelligence (AI)

ESSU may utilise AI-supported technologies to assist with administrative, communication and operational functions.

Where AI tools are used:

- Human oversight will remain in place.
- Personal data will be protected appropriately.

- AI systems will not be relied upon for solely automated decision-making that significantly affects individuals unless lawful safeguards are present.

Changes to This Policy

ESSU may update this Privacy Policy periodically to reflect:

- Changes in legislation
- Organisational developments
- New technology
- Regulatory guidance
- Operational requirements

The latest version will always be published on the ESSU website.
